The Holy Childhood Association (HCA) is one of four Pontifical Mission Societies active in some 110 countries throughout the world. Founded in France in 1843 by Bishop Charles de Forbin-Janson, HCA helps to animate the young faithful to a universal missionary spirit and to gather support from these children for the service of the local churches of Africa, Asia, remote regions of Latin America and the Pacific Islands among the poorest of the world's children.

Annually, more than two million young people, kindergarten through eighth grade, participate in HCA-sponsored programs in the United States through Catholic schools and parish religious education programs.

HCA is unique to other organizations that assist children in the Developing World in that its primary aim is to encourage children to share their faith with children in the Developing World through their prayers, personal sacrifices and financial offerings.

Contributions to HCA are allocated to mission dioceses throughout the world according to need. This system of allocating funds helps ensure that aid is distributed fairly and that those who are most desperately in need receive enough support. HCA funds are distributed to help children in 110 countries throughout the world.

More than 80% of HCA's annual funding in the United States is used for the Church's service among children in the Developing World and to provide mission education materials to children in the United States.

Parents, guardians, parish priests, religious brothers and sisters and lay people, especially teachers and catechists, play a vital role in HCA's mission. With support from these people, children can learn about children in other countries through HCA programs and learn too the message of HCA-that children are and can be missionaries today, called to share their faith and their love, in prayer and sacrifice, with the poorest of the world's children. In addition, financial contributions from adults help to underwrite the cost of education materials for children in the United States and also help support the Church's service to children in the Developing World.

MINISTRIES OF PRIESTS FOR LIFE

Rachel's Vineyard

Kevin & Theresa Burke

Rachel's Vineyard is the world's largest ministry of healing after abortion. Founded by Dr. Theresa and Kevin Burke, it became a ministry of Priests for Life several years ago. It is a retreat model based on trauma theory and offering, in both Catholic and interdenominational formats, an opportunity for women and men who have lost children to abortion to process their grief and begin the road to healing.

The retreats are rooted in Scripture and the sacraments and utilize the services of clergy and professional counselors. Over 650 retreats were offered worldwide in the past year at 195 Rachel's Vineyard retreat sites, 84 of which are run by local dioceses. Along with the retreats, Rachel's Vineyard facilitates personal follow-up and ongoing care as the journey of healing continues through life.

Rachel's Vineyard is a ministry of Priests For Life.

Silent No More Awareness Campaign

Janet Morana, Georgette Forney, Fr. Frank Pavone

The Silent No More Awareness Campaign is the world's largest mobilization of women and men who have lost children to abortion and are sharing their testimony. Founded by Janet Morana of Priests for Life and Georgette Forney of Anglicans for Life, this campaign seeks to bring post-abortion healing to those who need it, to educate the public about the harm abortion does, and to use the power of personal testimony to expose the harm of abortion and the healing power of Jesus Christ.

Members of the campaign share their testimony at public rallies, in Churches, in the media, in legislative assemblies, and in one-to-one encounters. Those who want to express their regret for abortion but remain anonymous can also do so through this campaign.

Silent No More Awareness Campaign is a project of Priests For Life and Anglicans For Life..

African-American Outreach

Dr. Alveda C. King

The African-American Outreach of Priests for Life seeks to foster within the African-American community a sense of ownership within the pro-life movement, which transcends any single ethnic, religious, or political group. Sadly, African Americans, though comprising only about 13% of the population, have roughly 33% of the abortions.

Dr. Alveda King, full-time Pastoral Associate of Priests for Life, is the niece of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and coordinates our African-American Outreach. Through media appearances, an extensive speaking schedule, and coordinated efforts with other African-American leaders, Dr. King works to advance what she calls "the civil rights movement of our day."

African-American Outreach is a project of Priests For Life.

These are three of the many ministries of Priests for Life; others include our Lay Missionaries of the Gospel of Life, Deacons for Life, Seminarians for Life, Hispanic Outreach, Life on the Line, and Gospel of Life Ministries.
